You dont touch
my cup! yodl
get germs all over it

The picture is about when Mrs Jane told the interviewer how long
the tree had been there

Love is what makes the world go round

This oak tree is as old as I can remember.

I sit here and I think.
I think about lots of things.
